

Jan. 27, 2010

General Motors Egypt celebrates the silver jubilee of its staff and workers

Cairo - In its last quarterly meeting for the year 2009 that took place on the 21st of January 2010, General Motors Egypt honors employees and workers who completed 25 years of service with the company.

Long Service Awards is a celebration that has been officiated last year post to the 25th anniversary celebration. All staff and workers are to be recognized in rotation each quarterly meeting, depending on their date of joining the company.

This time, GM Egypt recognized some 18 of its staff and operators for their hard work, dedication and passion in serving the company over the past twenty-five years.

In his speech, Rajeev Chaba- Chairman and Managing Director of General Motors Egypt expressed his utmost gratitude and admiration for the recognized employees saying that they have set a role model of loyalty to all their colleagues.

“These are colleagues who served the company for twenty-five years, during which they were capable of building and upholding GM brand in the Egyptian market. They are members who witnessed all phases of establishment and growth and until the very recent accomplishments and market leadership”. Chaba concluded.

About General Motors Egypt:

(GM-Egypt) is an Egyptian joint stock company established under the Egyptian Investment Law. The Company assembles and manufactures light and medium duty trucks, buses, passenger cars and sport utility vehicles.

GM plant onset took place in the year 1983 and began by producing commercial vehicles followed by passenger cars under the same disciplined supervision and expertise Today, more than 1200 salaried and hourly employees are working for General Motors Egypt all of them contributing towards maintaining the company's leadership goals including yearly production plans, market share, high quality standards and customer satisfaction.